13. Prices

Prices payable to the supplier as stated in the contract shall be firm during the performance of the contract.

14. Change Orders

The purchaser may at any time, by written order given to the supplier pursuant to GCC Clause 31, make changes within the general scope of the contract in any one or more of the following:

Designs, or specifications, where goods to be furnished under the contract are to be specifically printed for the purchaser;

The method of shipping or packing;

The place of delivery; and / or

The services to be provided by the supplier

If any such change causes an increase or decrease in the cost of, or the time required for, the suppliers performance of any provisions under the contract, an equitable adjustment shall be made in the contract price or delivery schedule, or both, and the contract shall accordingly be amended. Any claims by the supplier for adjustment under this clause must be asserted within thirty (30) days from the date of the supplier's receipt of the purchasers change order.

15 Contract Amendments

15.1 Subject to GCC Clause 17, no variation in or modification of terms of the contract shall be made except by written amendment signed by the parties.

16 Assignment

16.1 The suppliers shall not assign, in whole or in part, its obligations to perform under the contract, except with the purchaser's prior written consent.

1. Subcontracts

17.1 The Supplier shall notify the purchaser in writing of all subcontracts awarded under this contract if not already specified in the tender. Such notification, in his original tender or later, shall not relieve the supplier from any liability or obligation under the contract. Sub-contracts shall be only for bought out items and sub-assemblies.

17.2 Subcontracts must comply with the provisions of GCC Clause 2.

18. Delays in the Supplier's Performance

18.1 Delivery of the goods and performance of the services shall be made by the supplier in accordance with the time schedule specified by the purchaser in the Schedule of Requirements

18.2 If at any time during performance of the contract, the supplier or its sub-contract(s) should encounter conditions impeding timely delivery of the goods and performance of services, the supplier shall promptly notify the purchaser in writing of the fact of the delay, its likely duration and its cause(s). As soon as practicable after receipt of the suppliers notice, the purchaser shall evaluate the situation and may, at its discretion, extend the supplier's time for performance with or without liquidated damages, in which case the extension shall be ratified by the parties by amendment of the contract.

18.3 Except as provided under GCC Clause 24, a delay by the supplier in the performance of its delivery obligations shall render the supplier liable to the imposition of liquidated damages pursuant to GCC Clause 22, unless an extension of time is agreed upon pursuant to GCC Clause 21.2 without the application of liquidated damages.

19. Liquidated Damages

19.1 Subject to GCC Clause 24, if the supplier fails to deliver any or all of the goods or to perform the services within the period(s) specified in the contract, the purchaser shall, without prejudice to its other remedies under the contract, deduct from the contract price, as liquidated damages, a sum equivalent to 0.5% of the delivered price of the delayed goods or unperformed services for each week or part thereof of delay until actual delivery or performance, up to a maximum deduction of 10% of the contract price. Once the maximum is reached, the purchaser may consider termination of the contract pursuant to GCC Clause 23.

20. Termination for Default

20.1 The purchaser may, without prejudice to any other remedy for breach of contract, by written notice of default sent to the supplier, terminate the contract in whole or part:

If the supplier fails to deliver any or all the goods within the period(s) specified in the contract, or within any extension thereof granted by the purchaser pursuant to GCC Clause 21; or

If the supplier fails to perform any other obligation(s) under the contract.

If the supplier, in the judgment of the purchaser has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for or in executing the contract.

For the purpose of this Clause:

“Corrupt Practice” means the offering, giving, receiving, or soliciting of any thing of value to influence the action of a public official in the procurement process or in contract execution.

“Fraudulent Practice” means a misrepresentation of facts in order to influence a procurement process or the execution of a contract to the detriment of the Borrower, and includes collusive practice among Bidders (prior to or after bid submission) designed to establish bid prices at artificial non-competitive levels and to deprive the Borrower of the benefits of free and open competition.

20.2 In the event the purchaser terminates the contract in whole or in part, pursuant to GCC Clause 23.1, the purchaser may procure, upon such terms and in such manner as it deems appropriate, goods or services similar to those undelivered, and the supplier shall be liable to the purchaser for any excess costs for such similar goods or services. However, the supplier shall continue the performance of the contract to the extent not terminated.

21. Force Majeure

21.1 Notwithstanding the provisions of GCC Clause 21, 22, 23, the supplier shall not be liable for forfeiture of its performance security, liquidated damages or termination for default, if and to the extent that, its delay in performance or other failure to perform its obligations under the contract is the result of an event of Force Majeure.

21.2 For purposes of this Clause “Force Majeure” means an event beyond the control of the supplier and not involving the suppliers fault or negligence and not foreseeable. Such event may include, but are not limited to, acts of the purchaser either in its sovereign or contractual capacity, wars or revolutions, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions and freight embargoes.

21.3 If a Force Majeure situation arises, the supplier shall promptly notify the purchaser in writing of such conditions and the cause thereof. Unless otherwise directed by the purchaser in writing, the supplier shall continue to perform its obligations under the contract as far as is reasonably practical, and shall seek all reasonable alternative means for performance not prevented by the Force Majeure.

22. Termination for Insolvency

22.1 The Purchaser may at any terminate the contract by giving written notice to the supplier, if the supplier becomes bankrupt or otherwise insolvent. In this event, termination will be without compensation to the supplier, provided that such termination will not prejudice or affect any right of action or remedy which has accrued or will accrue thereafter to the purchaser.

23 Termination for Convenience

23.1 The purchaser by written notice sent to the supplier, may terminate the contract, in whole or in part, at any time for its convenience. The notice of termination shall specify that termination is for the purchaser's convenience, the extent to which performance of the supplier under the contract is terminated, and the date upon which such termination becomes effective.

23.2 The goods that are complete and ready for shipment within 30 days after the supplier's receipt of notice of termination shall be accepted by the purchaser at the contract terms and prices. For the remaining goods, the purchaser may elect:

To have any portion completed and delivered at the contract terms and prices; and / or

To cancel the remainder and pay to the supplier an agreed amount for partially completed goods and for materials and parts previously procured by the supplier.

24. Settlement of Disputes

24.1 The purchaser and the supplier shall make every effort to resolve amicably by direct informal negotiation any disagreement or dispute arising between them under or in connection with the contract.

24.2 If, after thirty (30) days, the parties have failed to resolve their dispute by such mutual consultation, then either the purchaser or the supplier may give notice to the other party of its intention to commence arbitration, as hereinafter provided, as to the matter in dispute, and no arbitration in respect of this matter may be commenced unless such notice is given.

24.2.1 Any dispute or difference in respect of which a notice of intention to commence arbitration has been given in accordance with this Clause shall be finally settled by arbitration. Arbitration may be commenced prior to or after delivery of the goods under the contract.

24.2.2 Arbitration proceeding shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of procedure specified in the SCC.

24.3 Notwithstanding any reference to arbitration herein,

The parties shall continue to perform their respective obligations under the Contract unless they otherwise agree; and

The purchaser shall pay the supplier any monies due the suppliers

25 Limitation of Liability

25.1 Except in cases of criminal negligence or willful misconduct, and in the case of infringement pursuant to Clause 5,

The supplier shall not be liable to the purchaser, whether in contract, tort, or otherwise, for any indirect or consequential loss or damage, loss of use, loss of production, or loss of profits or interest costs, provided that this exclusion shall not apply to any obligation of the supplier to pay liquidated damages to the purchaser; and

The aggregate liability of the supplier to the purchaser, whether under the contract, in tort or otherwise, shall not exceed the total contract price, provided that this limitation shall not apply to the cost of repairing or replacing defective equipment.

26 Governing Language

26.1 The contract shall be written in English language. Subject to GCC Clause 3o, English language version of the contract shall govern its interpretation. All correspondence and other documents pertaining to the contract which are exchanged by the parties shall be written in the same language.

27 Applicable Language

27.1 The contract shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Union of India.

28 Notices

28.1 Any notice given by one party to the other pursuant to this contract shall be sent to other party in writing or by cable, telex or facsimile and confirmed in writing to the other party's address specified in SCC.

28.2 A notice shall be effective when delivered or on the notice's effective date, whichever is later.

29 Taxes and Duties

29.1 Suppliers shall be entirely responsible for all taxes, duties, license fees, octroi, road permits, etc., incurred until delivery of the contracted goods to the purchaser.

30. AGREEMENT:

a) The successful Bidder(s) shall execute an agreement for the fulfillment of the contract on Rs. 100/- non-judicial stamp paper in the prescribed format provided, within three days from the date of acceptance of the Bid and intimation of the award of contract vide clause 1.a .

- b) The incidental expenses of execution of agreement shall be borne by the successful Bidder(s). Hereafter the successful Bidder shall be referred to as "Supplier".
- c) The conditions stipulated in the agreement should be strictly adhered to and violation of any of the conditions in full or in part will entail termination of the contract without prejudice to the rights of Government of Karnataka / Purchase and recovery of any consequential loss from the supplier.
